Dear Friend,

After a two year hiatus, we are thrilled to announce that our annual spring benefit gala is back and will be held on Wednesday, May 4th at The Boathouse at Mercer Lake. This year's event, "This is Still Home" will feature Pulitzer Prize-winning author of Evicted, Matthew Desmond. We will also honor former Arm In Arm Board Chair, Ken Barbuscio.

The pandemic has shone a light on many long-standing challenges and issues faced by our community members, and its effects on these families will be long-lasting. Arm In Arm is committed to creating sustainability for our neighbors in need so that they can survive, and ultimately thrive. The resources raised from "This is Still Home" will help to ensure we meet the current historic needs, as well as create stability for the future.

We invite you to partner with us in this endeavor by sponsoring "This Is Still Home". This event wouldn't be possible without the support of local partners like you, and, with your help, we can be one step closer to breaking the cycle of poverty through pathways to self-sufficiency. Your investment in us and the future of Mercer County is an example to the rest of the community.

More detailed information about the benefits of sponsorship and levels of support available is enclosed here or can be viewed on-line at www.arminarm.org/thisisstillhome. You can also reach out to Chief Development Officer, Maureen Hunt at 609-396-9355, x15, maureenh@arminarm.org.

Thank you again for your historic partnership and support of Arm In Arm, especially throughout the pandemic, and thank you for your consideration of this request. Please don't hesitate to contact me directly with any questions.

Sincerely,

Dr. David R. Fox, Ph.D., M.Div.
